TESTIMONIAL Panoba were unfazed by our last-minute application for our daughter, securing a place in just a few weeks

WE ARE PANOBA

We are UK education and lifestyle consultants for international professionals and their families

Since starting Panoba in 2014, Debbie & Nicky have helped and guided numerous families to find their ideal school and ensure the best start to their children's educational pathway.

Panoba services families who are looking for a bespoke and individual approach that puts the child first. From boarding schools to university admissions, we can be there every step of the way to support and assist. By engaging with our carefully selected network of professional partners, we find solutions for families who need help with making the crucial choices.
